157-165. Paragraphs 157-165 of the Complaint contain Plaintiff's conclusions of law, and therefore no answer is required.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. The Complaint fails to state a claim against AETC, in whole or in part, upon which relief may be granted.

2. Plaintiff, an unincorporated association of five companies, is the improper party to bring CERCLA claims or obtain declaratory judgment.

3. Plaintiff is not entitled to recover response costs under CERCLA or the Pennsylvania Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act from AETC because Plaintiff has not incurred response costs that exceed its allocable share of such costs under either CERCLA or the Pennsylvania Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act.

4. If AETC is liable to Plaintiff, which AETC denies, its liability is limited to response costs attributable to the release at the site of materials allegedly brokered by AETC, which costs are divisible from the response costs attributable to materials generated by other parties.

5. Plaintiff's CERCLA claims against AETC fails because AETC does not fall within any of the four classes of potentially responsible parties under Section 107(a) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §9607(a); specifically, AETC is not an "arranger".

6. Plaintiff's Pennsylvania Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act claim against AETC fails because AETC does not meet the statutory requirement of liability.

7. Plaintiff may not recover under CERCLA for costs it has incurred which are not necessary costs or are not consistent with the National Contingency Plan.

8. Any and all damages allegedly sustained, or to be sustained, by Plaintiff are the result of acts or omissions of third parties with whom AETC had no contractual relationship and over whom AETC had no control.

9. If AETC is liable to Plaintiff, which AETC denies, its liability is limited to its fair, equitable, and proportionate share of the response costs incurred, taking into account: (a) the liability and prior and subsequent conduct of the Plaintiff and all other defendants in the action; and (b) AETC's rights to set-off and or recoupment.

10. Plaintiff's claims against AETC shall be reduced and/or offset by any settlements entered into by the Plaintiff with any defendant herein.

11. No acts or omissions of AETC, alone or in combination, have been an actual cause, "but for" cause, contributing cause, or substantial factor in causing the alleged injury and harm complained of by Plaintiff.

12. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Plaintiff's contributory negligence.

13. Some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutory and common law statutes of limitation.

14. Plaintiff has failed to join necessary parties needed for a just adjudication of the claims asserted in this action, in whose absence complete relief cannot be accorded the existing parties.

15. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by reason of the equitable doctrines of laches, waiver, estoppel, and unclean hands.

16. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by its failure to properly mitigate damages.

17. AETC hereby incorporates by reference all affirmative defenses raised by any other defendant to the extent those defenses respond to allegations of the Complaint as addressed to AETC.

18. AETC reserves the right to assert any affirmative defense that may become available between now and the time that judgment, if any, is rendered in this action.

WHEREFORE, AETC demands judgment, dismissing the Third Amended Complaint and all claims therein with prejudice, to enter judgment against Plaintiff and in favor of AETC, to award AETC its costs and attorney's fees in defending this action, and such other relief as the Court deems proper and just.

CONTRIBUTION COUNTERCLAIM/CROSS-CLAIMS

Defendant AETC hereby refers to and incorporates herein by reference paragraph 1 of the June 18, 2004 Fifth Case Management Order in the above-captioned, which states that each defendant's answer shall be deemed to raise cross-claims and counterclaims for contribution pursuant to CERCLA and the Pennsylvania Hazardous Site Cleanup Act, and that all such cross-claims and counterclaims shall be deemed denied by each defendant.
